

Forums Adoptables General Into the Woods - Ooo.. What was that?! - Stor

Quote melody_angelt
Talking from a graphic design background, using a set that didn't really blend well... yeah. It makes a difference sometimes. Its lines like that where you have to rely on your finger to try to smudge enough to make an art piece.)

(hehe that reminds me of the charcoal unit in art class, I have art at the beginning of the day so for about 2 weeks I walked around school all day with charcoal all over my arm and face. :))

Do not meddle in the affairs of dragons, for you are crunchy and

(Well, I still think he turned out alright. Remember, I don't typically use nondigital materials.(Well until recently when my hands are giving out more) But yeah the blenders are great, I've been practicing with them and they definitely smooth it out.)

(nod He definitely turned out great^^ Im just saying for me, in general. I love using pencil crayons, but I think the set ive been stuck with has too much wax or something.)

(Ah gotcha. Pencil Crayons are different. I had a set of Crayola ones, but I dunno, I didn't much care for them, myself.)

((I think maybe its time to go see if they will cooperate. I dont remember the brand of pencilcrayons, but I know I have a set of Pantone markers with no blender.))

(Mmm. I bet you could get them to work properly)

((that was awesome. when are prizes gonna be handed out?))

we will see. I think right now I prefer digital.

Umm...give us time? Im hoping that we can maybe do it tonight, if not in a few days from now or ... maybe we don't need OOC anymore lol - it is OVER!

OOC:

Thank you all SO much for attending the RP - this has been a blast. Thank you so much melody and luna for all of your hard work during this! I really appreciate all of the beauty and planning you both put into everything here

I will be putting up a thread momentarily about the Quetzalcoatl - I know that everyone has told you that it is OOK - one of a kind ... but there is something even more special about it - The species itself is going to be EXTREMELY limited.

The specialness about this Quetzalcoatl is - once per breeding season it will be allowed to have a breeding spot. The thing about this ... is it will not require / nor will it be allowed a mate. It is a god in itself so, it will 'make' it's own children basically

There will be new lines made for the babies - and there will only be a chance at one offspring per breeding season. This chance isn't 100 percent either - (this information is still being worked out) The babies will 'never' be able to make another Quetzalcoatl again - only the god can produce the babies - thus making them very special and limited

So the next thread will be more about the god, and also our announcements for prize winners of the RPing event.

You all put SO much work into everything <3

Also sorry if this seems rushed - dealing with an emergency in the adopt world right now. noms everyone

Aww I am soo sad :(I missed the ending! I was planning another prophecy, and I still feel the urge to write it here for all of you to read, so here it goes:

"The day of darkness long behind,
The battle fought came to unwind,
And with it all our greatest fears,
The result not becoming tears,
For in the darkest hour tall,
Stood each one, one and all.
We fought with heart,
and there combined,
Is worth more than a million dimes."

And there? Was Ginger's final prophecy. We should definitely have one of these again, I had so much fun! When will the prize thread be put up?

That was a lot of fun. I liked the prophecies Zeb. Those were cool.

Aww, thankies animallover ^.^ But still, I can't believe it's over Y'all might want to go see the thread in adoptable breeding :) Not that the chance of accepting something is high...but you never know.

Aww im glad that you enjoyed it :) It took awhile to write out, but it seemed to flow together

I'm sorry I missed the entire end of the event, it was so exciting to read through. I managed to pick up food poisoning on top of being pregnant. (we think it was from the lemons and a bowling alley) Thanks so much all of you for holding this event. I love all the new guardians and the phoenix's and the Quetzalcoatl!

This was the first RP I ever attempted and I missed most of it, but it was lots of fun.

((ack missed this..I forgot to join..boy is my boy mad at me lol))

I am a lover not a fighter.

dont want to loose this^^

Oh my :) That Quetzal is awesome. So very awesome :O. (I would have joined the rp, but I've got too much going on [D -shot- But I'm excited about the quetzal! C:)

"And that, people, is why Myumi is a saint." -amino wow it's gorgeous! I wish I hadn't missed the end, but I caught a cold and spent yesterday in bed D:

Once again melody and Fae, I must ask, when will the prize thread be put up? I am super excited about seeing if I won anything, because I really wanted another guardian to add to my owner's folder ^.^ Hey, let's have a poll! Everybody, what was your fave elemental we met in the temple? Personally, I can't choose between the ice and the wind elementals. They are both breathtaking!

I loved the water girl

Please be patient :) We still need to go through the RP.

There are actually still a few elementals you havent met yet^^ grins

I think I can announce that the prize giving ceremony and final auctions and things will be held tomorrow after about 20:00 PT time - so basically about 24 hours from now you should see a new thread be popping up :) And I will be going through the RP and discuss things to determine our winners :) I'm AFK today - or I'd happily work on it today. Sorry for the delay but I can promise that tomorrow we will have all our answers

noms everyone, especially melody and Luna lov Thanks for yesterday guys

Thanks for the update Fae. I shall be keeping my eye out for the new thread. Saves up for auctions

Me I love ice and fire ^^

Cool! Personally, I like the dark dude the most. Even if he is just a guardian.

I'm not obsessive, I'm just a Loopy Lupine Lover.

Humm...

Out of the 4 "available?" Its a tough call. I like all 4 for different reasons and would be ecstatic if I were eligible to receive either

I like the air and ice girls the most. They were so gorgeous.

I know! I can't believe it's over already either! It was so fun!

Hmm... I think my favorites were the water, fire, and the shadow/dark guy. :3 Though, all of them were pretty darn awesome! ^_~ grins I know my favorite is ICE - all the way - hehe I don't know why but she seems the most magical and enchanting to me :) I might have to hit someone up for a breeding with her haha >.< Isn't it sad when you are addicted to your own adoptions? :)

No. It just means that you're on the bandwagon. So... Welcome aboard Faerain!
